THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY, JUNE 20.

At the sale of Lord Crawford's library, last Wednesday, a Gutenberg bible, the first book printed with movable metal types, in the original oak boards, was bid off for $125.00.

During the past season Edwin Booth made $175,000. Mrs. Langtry $75,000, and Addison Fath $250,000. So Path continues to be the greatest drawing power in the world if measured by dollars and cents.

It is not much of a wonder that the World balm soon found the ground after leaving St. Louis. The supplies the men took along with them consisted of a good supply of provisions and six gallons of brandy and whiskey. When the men were picked up, the provisions had hardly been touched, while the liquor was pretty well used up. The balm was full of too much poor gas, and the managers too full of bad whisky.

President Cleveland evidently thinks that parties are bad masters, but good and necessary servants, and should not be entirely discarded until something better is invented something better. Philadelphia Times.

The independence and the president promised to give it some political soap, but it seems he thinks the democratic party is good enough for him. At least he has given his party all he has to give.

The Chicago Times of Saturday morning presented reports of crop conditions collected from over one thousand points in the northwest. Although wheat has been damaged by the prolonged drought and intensely hot weather in some localities, the general prospect is very encouraging. There is a largely increased acreage, especially in Dakota, and the aggregate yield in the northwest promises to be the largest ever known. There will be short crops of timothy and flax, and the barley crop also threatens to be a partial failure.

The socialists who want land as be as good as for a while yet. There are still 9,000,000 acres of public land in California, 12,000,000 in Arizona, 20,000,000 in Colorado, 40,000,000 in Dakota, 7,000,000 in Florida, 44,000,000 in Idaho, 7,000,000 in Minnesota, 41,000,000 in Montana, 20,000,000 in Washington Territory, and some millions of acres in other states and territories. Albany Argus.

Yes, but the socialists and the walking delegates and the men who organize strikes are not the men who would work farms if they had them. The socialists are a class that do not believe in farm work or any other kind of work except that of the chin.

Bradstreet's has compiled very exhaustive tables on the number of workmen at present engaged in the various industries of the country, the wages paid them, and other highly interesting data, and the general results shown are very satisfactory. It appears from them that at least 400,000 more workmen are engaged than at this time two years ago, and that the wages which had sunk very low in the two years prior to 1885, are at present about the same figures they were during the bright business year of 1881-'82. These are facts that labor agitators do not consider when they set up a howl against the men who employ workmen.

A conference was recently held in London to consider the advisability of forming a national prohibition party in Great Britain. The hundred or so delegates who were present were unanimous in believing that the time had come for organizing such a party, but its proceedings were hardly noticed by the great metropolitan journals. No people of any prominence attended the conference, with the possible exception of Mr. Axel Gustafson, who is busily agitating this question in England. A religious journal, "The Christian Commonwealth," is vigorously advocating prohibition for Great Britain. It must feel a little lone some, as it is the only distinctly religious paper in England which has a word to say in favor of prohibition.

Two of the Cook county oodlers, Ward McFarlane and Edward McDonald, have been found guilty of fraud and embezzlement, and have had their terms to the state prison fixed at three years each. A motion was made for a new trial, but has not been argued. It is not likely that Judge Shepard will grant a new trial, as there are no substantial grounds on which one can be granted. There will be some hope for Chicago if McFarlane and McDonald are compelled to serve three years in Joliet. It would be a triumph of justice, for which all good citizens of Cook county should be proud. Now let the trials of the other boarders go on with all possible haste. The sooner Mike McDonald and Schneider follow McFarlane and Ed. McDonald the better.

It would be a compliment to the new south which it well deserves, if the democratic national convention should place a progressive southern man on the ticket with Mr. Cleveland, but it is not likely to do so. The south would not feel sore-headed, but would support the ticket heartily. Atlanta Constitution.

Well, the south would have no occasion to feel sore-headed should it not get the candidates for the vice presidency. The present administration is "southern" enough for the most enthusiastic southerner. "The official honors paid to the memory of Jacob Thompson, the appointment of several hundreds of representatives to office, the elaborate letter of regret sent to the Albert Sidney Johnston Memorial Association, the stilted tribute to Calhoun's wisdom, and the return of the captured rebel battle-flags," ought to be a source of great satisfaction even to Jeff Davis. The south certainly has all it wants in Grover Cleveland.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

A PAIR OF STRANGE SUICIDES IN THE EAST.

Train Robbery in Texas—The Cora Lee Trial—Sad Accident on Lake Michigan.

New York, June 20.—Mrs. Pearl Lacey, a handsome young woman, aged 22 years, who had been married less than a year, shot herself in her room at 43 Washington square Saturday morning and died a few hours later at St. Vincent's hospital. She was the daughter of a well-to-do farmer living near Newark, Ohio. Having become engaged to a young man, she had come to New York at his request and met him in Newark, N. J., where they were married June 1. They came to this city and occupied a room on Washington square. Since her marriage she seemed to be a constant victim of homesickness and melancholia, and remained in the room, crying the greater portion of the time. When her husband reached home after midnight he found her writing what appeared to be an announcement of her intention to kill herself. She then retired, and a couple of minutes later a pistol-shot aroused her husband, who sprang up in time to catch her as she fell with blood flowing from a bullet-wound at the base of her skull. Other inmates of the house rushed in, and she exclaimed: "I did it. I did not want to live." She was taken in an ambulance to the hospital, but nothing could be done to save her.

Suicide at Niagara.—N. Y., June 20.—About 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon a party of visitors, who were viewing the scenery from the Three Sisters Islands, observed a middle-aged man, apparently bent on self-destruction, standing on the third bridge that connects the islands. Looking back a few minutes later the man was seen to have his coat and hat off, and was in the act of leaping from the bridge into the water. The party were at too great a distance to do anything but stand and witness the fatal leap. The body sank at once and passed over the Horseshoe falls. Hastening back to the bridge the party found the coat and hat, and on the bridge together with the man's watch and a pocket watch by the suicide to mark the spot where he made the leap. From papers in the pocket of the coat it was learned that the man was a freight agent at the International Hotel here for the past few days, and the hotelkeeper knows nothing about the man.

A Big Train Robbery.—Galveston, Texas, June 20.—A report has reached here that the last-bound California express on the Southern Pacific railroad was robbed at 8 o'clock Saturday morning by a band of robbers near the town of Alameda, a Bay County county, about ninety-five miles west of San Antonio and 125 miles west of Houston. The express car was robbed. Nobody was killed. It is said that the robbers secured $75,000. As the train drew up at the station two men with drawn revolvers accosted the engineer and forced him to pull the train to the open prairie, a few hundred yards to the east, where a fire was burning and around which stood eight or ten men, all armed with Winchester rifles. The two robbers on the engine stood guard over the train as the others went through the mail, express and passenger cars. Nearly all the passengers were asleep and unaware of what was going on until they were aroused by the robbers.

Three Young Men Drowned.—Chicago, June 20.—George Baker, aged 20 years, book-keeper for the Washington Park Club in the Palmer House headquarters, Edward Clark, aged 21, cashier for the P. C. Hartford Oil company, and W. B. Miller, aged 22 years, a clerk in the Chicago Telephone company, went out in a rowboat on the lake Saturday evening and have not been heard from yet. A squall came up about 8 o'clock, and it is supposed all three perished. Several parties standing near the shore of Thirty-fifth street during the gale state that they heard pistol shots fired at some distance from shore, which are now accepted as signs of distress from the young men. The coats and papers of George Baker, one of the unfortunate young men, were found ashore at the foot of Fifty-fourth street at 8 o'clock Sunday evening.

Witnesses for Cora Lee.—Milwaukee, Wis., June 20.—Fourteen witnesses testified for the defense in the Cora Lee trial Saturday. J. S. Hazeltine, station agent at Dorchester, a station two or three miles north of Moline, France, swore that Graham and a woman, whom he identified as Sarah Graham from a picture shown in court, got off a train at Dorchester on the night of the murder. Emma Lee, Cora Lee's sister, swore that on the night of the murder Cora Lee slept in the same bed with witness at the Moline Hotel, and that she was together with her at 3 p. m. Other witnesses testified that it was not on the night of the murder, but two evenings before it, that the woman was seen driving a gray pony on the Moline farm to this city.

A Minister Charged With Arson.—Shelbyville, Ind., June 20.—The Beloit Baptist church, ten miles south of here, was burned Saturday night, and the minister, Charles Cole, caught and jailed here. He confessed and swore out an affidavit for the pastor, Rev. W. Snapp offered him $50 to burn the church. Cole says Snapp wanted the church burned because the church members charged him with adultery with a member of his congregation, the charge resulting in several ineffectual church trials. Cole is 26 years old, and unmarried.

Accused His Wife and Disappeared.—Racine, Wis., June 20.—Ray W. Johnston, who claimed to be the son of an English nobleman, but actually assaulted his wife here Saturday and disappeared. He has since been found in a floating boat written by him, in which he intimated that he had committed suicide. The police do not believe he is dead, but that he left with a female book agent with whom he had become infatuated.

An Athlete Town Destroyed.—Hudson, N. Y., June 20.—Washington, a little town located in Woodbury county, on the Alton road, was the scene of a disastrous fire Saturday. Nearly the entire business portion of the place was destroyed, including the postoffice. The loss is about $150,000.

Hundreds Drowned in a Squall.—Perry, June 20.—While a party of 250 pilgrims were crossing the Danube river near Paks the boat on which they were making the passage was caught in a hurry-cane and capsized, only a few of the party being saved. Over 100 bodies have been recovered.

A Bank Book-keeper in Trouble.—Chicago, June 20.—A. C. J. Rudolph, book-keeper for the Continental Bank, has been charged with forging a $3,000 check, and has been bound over in $4,000 bonds.

Buckenham & Co., at 260 and 268 South Clinton street, was entirely destroyed by fire at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The building, a three-story and basement brick, 90 by 120 feet in dimensions, was completely gutted, and the stock carried by the firm and all machinery, fixtures and materials made a total loss. The amount of the losses are: On building, $50,000; on machinery, stock and fixtures, $20,000; on freight, $10,000; on insurance, $10,000. The building is the property of Gottlieb Veitich, a West Side capitalist, and was erected about four years ago. The fire was one of the most disastrous blazes the city has known for many years. It was found that the cause of the fire was the lighting of a candle in the building, all efforts to quench the flames were for ever unavailing, the water seemingly to cause them to burn the more furiously.

The Michigan Legislature.—LANSING, Mich., June 20.—The Senate has made the general "Purity of Election Bill" the special order for Tuesday next and has passed the Senate concurrent resolution fixing the final adjournment for June 23. Alleged Negro Conspiracy.—COLUMBIA, S. C., June 20.—It is rumored that the negroes and white youths have organized secret oath-bound clubs with the intention of burning out and massacring the white planters, taking the white girls as wives, and enslaving the white children. The Governor is reported to put one or two regiments of militia in the county at very short notice, and says that it is necessary all the troops in the State will be ordered out and he will himself go to Laurens.

BOODLERS FOUND GUILTY

M'GARIGLE AND McDONALD CONVICTED OF CONSPIRACY.

A Sentence of Three Years Recommended by the Jury—Judge Shepard's Charge.

CHICAGO, June 20.—The end of the great boodler trial came rather suddenly Saturday afternoon, when the jury returned their verdict. The jury found M'Garigle and McDonald guilty of conspiracy, and recommended that they be sentenced to three years in the penitentiary at hard labor.

The defendants and their friends were dumbfounded when they heard the verdict. They had hoped for acquittal, and were confident that if not acquitted they would be sent to the penitentiary for a short time, and then released. The jury's verdict was a surprise to all.

The judge's charge to the jury was a long and careful one. He told them that the evidence was clear, and that they must find the defendants guilty. He told them that the conspiracy was a serious one, and that the defendants had acted in a wicked and deliberate manner.

THE WEATHER AND GRAIN

THE CROP SITUATION AT THE PRESENT TIME.

The Signal Service Bulletin—The Crop Averages in the West—The Outlook in Illinois.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The signal office has issued the following weather bulletin for the week ending June 18:

Temperatures.—During the week ending June 18 the weather has been warmer than the average for the week except at stations on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts in the west and on the Pacific coast north of San Francisco. In the wheat and corn regions of the north the excess of temperature for the week has been an average daily excess above the normal of from 1 to 3 degrees.

The greatest excess of temperature occurred in the northwest, and the weather conditions of the week are reported as especially favorable for corn and wheat, except in sections of Illinois, Iowa, and eastern Missouri, where all crops except corn have been more or less injured by the drought. Recently during the week there has been a deficiency of rainfall generally throughout the agricultural regions east of the Rocky mountains, except in sections of Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska, and Kansas. The deficiency of rainfall occurred in the Southern States, the lower Ohio, and central Mississippi valley. The deficiency in the cotton region has probably not yet affected that crop unfavorably, owing to the numerous and well distributed showers of the previous week; but reports generally show that more rain is needed in that section. Slight deficiencies of rainfall are also reported in New England, but general reports from the Northern States show numerous and well distributed showers have occurred. The seasonal deficiency in Iowa, Illinois, and southern Wisconsin exceeds five inches, while an excess of five inches is reported for the north Pacific coast and the upper Ohio valley.

General Remarks.—The week has been generally favorable for the staple crops. There has been more than the average amount of sunshine in the central valleys, and the weather has been generally favorable for the growing of crops. The weather has been generally favorable for the growing of crops. The weather has been generally favorable for the growing of crops.

HARRY H. BLISS, JOHN D. KING, Janesville June 18, 1887.

THE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.

By order of the common council the people of Janesville will vote on Monday, June 27th, on the question of issuing bonds to the amount of $12,000 for the purpose of building and furnishing a new school house in the second ward, on the site of the old school house.

The necessity for a new building in the second ward has been urged by certain members of the board of education for some years, and now that the old building has been condemned as a fire trap and as unsuitable for school purposes by competent builders, after a careful inspection, there can be scarcely a doubt entertained as to the necessity for voting the appropriation asked for.

We hear of very little opposition to the building of a school house at this time, and the Gazette trusts there will be none. The board of education, who are perfectly conversant with the condition and requirements of the building in that ward, are practically unanimous in their request for the new building, which is argument enough that the people should not hesitate in voting the necessary money.

Nothing adds more to the wealth and prosperity of a city than first class school buildings, and nothing retards the growth or prosperity more than a dilapidated structure as that which now stands for the city school building in the second ward. In order that the children of the city can receive a proper education, under the present laws governing our common school system, suitable buildings and suitable accommodations must be provided, the school room must be inviting and cheerful, that the youngsters may feel at home and safe, and not in the constant fear of being brought in contact with some fearful calamity. The Gazette is in favor of the new building, as requested by the school board, believing that the money so appropriated and spent will be of greater benefit to the city, than a lesser sum spent to try to patch up the old rookery and in paying of rent for rooms elsewhere. We hope the proposition will be unanimously carried by vote of the people.

CENTER SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Annual Meeting of the Rock County Sunday School Association.

There was a large gathering at the Disciples church at Center yesterday, the occasion being the annual meeting of the Rock County Sunday School Association. Representatives from schools in Janesville, Madison, Emerald Grove, Milton, Porter, Fostville, Plymouth, Magnolia and Spring Valley were present. The floral offerings were beautiful. The end of the church was filled with plants and flowers, and in the center the word "Welcome" was prominent. After a praise meeting, Mr. J. T. Wright gave an address on "The Work Before Us." At the close of the service, the audience was invited into the grove adjoining, where the ladies had spread their tables. Hundreds were recipients of their bounty. The exercises of the afternoon were devoted to the children—the first hour in the study of the lesson of the day.

"The Tenth Commandment," led by Rev. Mr. Mills, after which Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary sang, followed by short addresses. The children contributed largely to the interest of the meeting by their recitations and singing. Mrs. Wallace read a beautiful original poem full of tenderness and love for the children.

It being announced that Mrs. Griffing, secretary of the Rock County S. S. Ass'n, is soon to sever her connection with this organization, after seven years faithful work. Therefore,

Resolved, That we are pained to part with our sister, who for so many years kept our records and by constant and untiring faithfulness increased its usefulness. That as she leaves us for a home at the Golden Gate, she can be assured of our grateful remembrance and prayers. That in her future home she may find a larger field of usefulness and when her labors are finished, may have an able entrance into that upper and better land where there are no partings, congregations never break up and faithful labor finds its full reward.

THE TINTIC M. & M. COMPANY.

Hon. Alex. Graham's Rich Mine in Utah.

The St. Lake Tribune, of Sunday, June 12th, publishes a long article on the rich gold and silver mines of that territory, and makes the following allusion to the mine owned by Hon. Alex. Graham, of this city—"The Tintic M. & M. Company, a corporation, own a group of mines, the principal ones being the Northern Spy and the north part of the Northern Spy. The Northern Spy is a new mine, opened only six years ago. Although but a comparatively small force has been employed, it has made a record gratifying to its owners. Alexander Graham, the largest owner, is now, and has been its manager ever since, the mine was opened. It is a contact vein, with lime on one side and porphyry on the other, and has been developed on the 100-foot level, for over 1600 of the company's 2000 feet, without a single break in the vein all this distance. The vein has run from 6 to 80 feet and is said to average fully 15 feet, carrying gold, silver and lead of very high grade. This is the coming mine of the district. During the past year this company did but little except drift and sink, taking out only such ore as came in the drifts and shafts, and yet this more than paid all expenses. They have very large reserves of high grade ore. Only a few days ago they tapped a free body on the 100 foot level. This company own what is known as the Wyoming mine at Homansville which is operated part of the time.

Fairbanks's Soaps lead all the others. The best is the cheapest.

LITERARY NOTES.

Points from the Magazine of the Current Month.

Wide Awake, for July, will be one of the best numbers the Lothrop have ever published.

Gen. Sherman has written a paper on "The Grand Strategy of the War," which The Century will print.

St. Nicholas has a strongly patriotic story, appropriate to the Fourth of July. But the Brownies become imbued with the prevalent enthusiasm, and celebrate the day at night.

The Lincoln Life in the July Century reaches a point of the very highest interest, as it includes a full and complete account of the great struggle between the great and Lincoln to the white house.

In "Our Diplomats at Court," Frank G. Carpenter gives the American Magazine an amusing resume of the difficulties encountered by our representatives abroad in the matter of costume or style of dress.

In one of the Thackeray letters which will appear in Scribner's Magazine for July an interesting clue is given to the way in which Thackeray utilized his experiences of real life in some of the most effective characters in his novels.

And now Prof. William T. Hays, the distinguished representative of the Central School of Philosophy, is to appear as a critic of Henry George's land theory. An article from him will be published in the July number of the Forum.

To the article by Prof. Patton, of Princeton, in the Forum for June, "Is Andrew Bannister a Quaker?" the Editor of the Magazine, Prof. Newman, will make reply in the same issue. View for July, under the striking, not to say aggressive, title, "Is Princeton Homecoming?"

NOTICE.

The Home Mastodon Mine! We will meet at the Guards' army Tent every evening at 8:30 o'clock. Business of importance.

The use of Fairbanks's Soaps makes clothes clean and white. No yellowing.

SIXTH ANNUAL REUNION.

of Green County Soldiers at Albany.

The sixth annual reunion of Green County soldiers, held at Albany, Wis., Thursday, June 16, was unanimously voted a grand success in point of numbers and interest, by all who participated in the social event. It was a royal outpouring of the loyal masses, in recognition of honored veterans, their timely service and devotion, at a time when liberty was assailed by bitter factions in open hostility and opposed to the cherished institutions of our fathers.

At an early hour every arrangement had been perfected for carrying out the programme at Campbell's park in an efficient manner. Long lines of tables were provided, and a picnic dinner served to G. A. R. posts, visiting comrades and their families. The Baptist society also provided dinner for the multitude. When the time came for opening the exercises, the grounds literally swarmed with people from all parts of the county, and a part of Rock county. The morning train brought a large delegation from Broadhead and interior towns. They were accompanied by the Broadhead and Spring Valley silver cornet bands, which did excellent service in the rendition of songs, stirring and popular airs. The Brown-topping glee club was present, and opened the exercises with a glorious anthem, executed only as adepts can render in the sweet blending of vocal strains. Mr. J. F. Carle, of Albany, gave the address of welcome in his usual happy vein. He was followed by Rev. F. L. Wharton, of Evansville, Wis., in a short speech, full of pathos and enthusiasm as well as forgiveness to repentant rebels, excepting only that class who wantonly starved Union soldiers in loathsome southern prison pens.

Capt. A. N. Randall, of Broadhead, presented the "Log and the Oaks of the Camp," and the routine of army life. This was received with hearty applause. Mr. P. J. Clawson, of Monroe, touched a tender chord when he spoke of "Our Boys" in telling words, showing the heroism and bravery exhibited by the undaunted during the dark days of the war.

The exercises were interspersed with excellent music and the rehearsal of the old war songs. Altogether, it was a day long to be remembered with its pleasant associations, retrieving the memory with incidents, adventures, and the pleasing as well as the sad side of army life.

The steamer Mikado, made several trips during the day with excursionists, and was quite a feature of attraction for the day.

However much exultation, hatred and a misbegotten faith may have blinded the minds of the wayward south, it is a matter for serious contemplation and that of rejoicing that the tide of fanaticism, which has so long reigned as a scourge to the nation, has been broken at last.

STAR OF BETHLEHEM.

Much is being said about a star which astronomers say is coming again this year, which has been named the "Star of Bethlehem." It is one of the variable stars of which there are several, and its appearance and disappearance have been quite accurately determined by astronomers. The history of this star now that it is so much interest is, that it was first carefully observed in 1572 by Tycho Brahe, a noted astronomer of his time, whose calculations induced him to believe it to be the star that guided the men of the east to the manger of the infant Saviour. Astronomers naturally regard such an idea as an illusion of the mind. Investigation showed that a similar star appeared and disappeared at the same spot in the years 1264 and 945, and then it was assumed that the star appeared and disappeared about every three hundred years, that is, with a definite period of waxing and waning, it was to be looked for about this time, and astronomers have, therefore, been watching for it for several years. Its place in the heavens is in the constellation Cassiopeia on the opposite side of the North star from the Dipper, on a line with the pointers of the Dipper, and about as far from the Pole star on that side as the nearest point in the constellation Cassiopeia claim is from the star can now be seen, and that when it reaches its nearest point to earth so brilliant will it appear in the heavens that it will cast a shadow.

THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Burns Captures the Suburban Handicap at Sheepshead.

New York, June 20.—The Suburban Handicap was run at Sheepshead Bay Sunday and captured by A. J. Cassatt's Burn. It was not a test of speed, but rather a test of endurance. The race was run over a course of about 1 1/2 miles, and the winner was Burns, a three-year-old colt, owned by A. J. Cassatt. The race was a very close one, and the winner was only a few lengths ahead of the second place horse.
